

Sponsored by F.F.U.N.
and the
Shelby County
Crime Victims Center

*You are invited to the 8th Annual Garden of Lights
Memorial Celebration
at the Memphis Botanic Garden (750 Cherry Rd., in Audubon Park)*

*When: Tuesday, April 23, 2013
Time: 6:00 pm
Location: The Homicide Memorial (near the Japanese Gardens)*

This event is free and open to the public.

The public is welcome to read poems or dedications to their loved ones at this memorial; however, due to time and editorial constraints, all readings must be approved in advance by the CVC staff. Please contact an HRP counselor by April 12, should you wish to read your work
at the event.

Please note that the actual memorial spot is near the Japanese Gardens and requires a 10-minute walk from the main building.
Limited transportation will be available only for those who are not able to walk.

It is recommended that everyone arrive around 5:30 pm, to provide ample time to walk to the site,
and for fellowship preceding the event.

Homicide Memorial Plaque near the Japanese Gardens

For more information, contact the Crime Victims Center at 901-222-3969.